MUFG RELEASES 2018 CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY REPORT

LOS ANGELES, September 16, 2019 – LOS ANGELES, September 16, 2019 – MUFG, a global financial group today released its 2018 Corporate Social Responsibility \(CSR\) Report, *Building a Vibrant Future*, which details its progress toward social, economic and environmental goals, and underscores the impact of the bank's CSR efforts in local communities throughout the Americas.

The report details the foundation's philanthropic endeavors for its fiscal year from April 1, 2018, to March 31, 2019.

With a focus on environmental and sustainability goals, the company financed nearly 60 clean energy projects in 2018. For the third consecutive year, MUFG was recognized by Bloomberg as Global Lead Arranger for financing clean energy and energy-smart technologies. The ranking, released as part of Bloomberg's annual New Energy Finance league table, places MUFG No. 1 among private-sector banks.

In 2018, MUFG donated more than $19 million to more than 1,700 non-profit organizations in support of social, economic and environmental challenges in underserved communities, among other local needs. In addition, MUFG colleagues donated more than 48,000 hours of volunteer time in 2018.

Additional report highlights include:

- $1.07 billion in loans to support small businesses and farms
- $234 million of discretionary spending to diverse businesses
- $1.95 billion in lending and investments to support affordable housing

- 325 internship program graduates from the bank's five student-run high school branches since 2011

"Our annual CSR report reflects our commitment to transparency on these matters and our desire to consistently report our progress toward these important goals with all interested audiences," said Julius Robinson, Head of Corporate Social Responsibility for the Americas, MUFG Union Bank. "With growing concerns around climate change and pressing societal challenges, we are looking at where we can use our scale and expertise to have positive impacts through our businesses, products and philanthropy."
